

TOM SEATON IS POUNDED AGAIN BY NEWARK FEDS

Tip Tops Drop Third Game of Series and Big Pitcher Is Retired.

MORAN BAFFLES BROOKLYN TEAM

Weakens in Last Innings, but Not Enough to Endanger Game.

Tom Seaton went back against the Newark Feds yesterday, and for the second time in the series he was knocked out of the box. The former Quaker twirler was found for seven hits in seven innings, during which time the Newark Feds gathered all their runs to defeat the Brookfords by a score of 7 to 2. Don Marion relieved Seaton and held the Newark batters ruffled for an inning.

Pitted against Seaton was Harry Moran, the former Washington and Lee University student, who repeated his success of Thursday. During the first seven innings Moran allowed the Tip Tops only two hits, and Anderson, who had opened the game with a single, was the only one to reach first base. In the eighth and ninth innings, with Newark holding a safe lead, Moran eased up in his work, a triple by Hall and three singles giving the Brookfords a run in each frame.

Both sides fielded sharply, although Magee and Gagner were credited with errors on the side of the Brookfords. Moran was not lacking for encouragement from his team mates, as they backed him up with airtight baseball and several double plays.

Each side was retired almost in order during the first inning, but in the fourth Seaton doubled to center, LaPorte followed with a long single to left, on which Seaton scored and LaPorte reached second. Huhn followed with the third successive hit of Seaton, with a drive to center, which sent LaPorte home, but when he tried for second he was nailed. Esmond fled to Anderson and Seaton walked, but Gagner threw out Huhn.

In the fifth an error, a sacrifice and a walk, placed three Newark men on the bases with two out. However, Seaton forced Huhn to hit to him, and Seaton hit Watson, who tagged Moran at the plate.

Esmond opened the sixth with a single, and when Seaton tripled to left, scoring Esmond, it looked as if Seaton had sent to the shower both Seaton and Seaton was left stranded, when Barriero fouled out, Magee threw out Moran and Campbell was out, Cooper to Seaton, who beat Campbell to the base.

Seaton received a heavy thumping in the seventh when four Newark Feds cantered over the plate, after two men had been retired. Magee let McKee's grounder go through him. Seaton forced McKee to second, and McKee hit to left, on which Seaton scored. Seaton was left stranded, when Barriero fouled out, Magee threw out Moran and Campbell was out, Cooper to Seaton, who beat Campbell to the base.

WINTER LEAGUERS END THEIR SEASON

University Wins Twice, Knickerbockers Once, in Triple-Header.

The baseball players of the Winter League brought to an end their championship tournament, with a triple header on the "lot" on Fifth Avenue yesterday. Two of the games went into extra innings, the ten-inning issue between the Racquet and Tennis Club, the new champions, and the University Club establishing a new record for the league.

University was the winner of the contest by a score of 8 to 7. It proved a double winner when it defeated the Calumet Club in the final game of the afternoon by a score of 11 to 6. The University men gathered eight runs in the first inning, and thereafter they won the game.

In the opening contest the Knickerbocker players showed speed that carried them to an eight-inning victory over the Union Club by a score of 5 to 4. The "Knicks" tied the score at 4-4 in the seventh. In the eighth Twined reached first on Hinkley's error, and stole second. Hoyt then struck out, and as Tweed dashed for third base, Watson, the Union catcher, threw the ball over the wall, letting Tweed reach home.

Many sharp plays on both sides marked the Racquet and Tennis Club game. The latter jumped early to a five-run lead in the first two innings, but the Racquet men recovered themselves and tied the score at 7-7 in the sixth. In the tenth inning Wilcox, the University pitcher, sent Simmons home with the winning run. In his half the Racquet got Sheffield on first with one out, but when Wrenn popped to Wilcox, who doubled Sheffield off first base.

Charles Leonard, formerly of Harvard, helped his batting average with six hits, while he bungled only two of his twelve chances. Wrenn had a busy time as well, handling fourteen chances perfectly.

Giant Lose Once Again to Superbas of Brooklyn

on Morkie's rap, and then Appleton got the bases, Kagan entering. Robertson hit into a double play.

In the fifth Superbas walked and scored on Robertson's lucky triple. Hans counted on Fletcher's single.

Brooklyn began its drive in the third inning. With one out, Matty lapsed from his usual form and hit McCarry where it didn't hurt much, and Lew Ragan when Matty made a stylish stop of a shot through the box. O'Mara's single to center sent Ragan to second, and he scored on Daubert's drive to center.

Snodgrass, the last named injected some California temperament into the game and threw wild, whereupon O'Mara also got around.

A pass to Wheat, Cutshaw's single on the hit-and-run play and long flies by Myers and Zimmerman produced two runs in the fourth, and Brooklyn fanned howled in glee.

In the sixth hits by Wheat and the ubiquitous Cutshaw and an error by Burns gave the Superbas another run, while Doyle's error, O'Mara's single and Cutshaw's drive, sandwiched in with a sacrifice by Daubert and a pass to Schultz, produced two more in the seventh.

YALE DEFEATS BROWN IN NIP AND TUCK GAME

Effective Pitching by "Pie" Way a Big Factor in Victory of Blue.

BABINGTON KNOCKS OUT HOME RUN

Pass and Hit Batsman in the Seventh Inning Prove Costly for Home Team.

(By Telegraph to the Tribune.)
Providence, April 24.—The Yale bulldog triumphed over the Brown bear on the diamond here this afternoon. The score was 3 to 2. It was a nip-and-tuck affair and sparkled with brilliant pieces of fielding and several long drives.

Brown's poor work at critical stages and the effective pitching of "Pie" Way tell the story of the Yale victory, which was disappointing to the largest crowd that has turned out at a college game here for several seasons.

Babington's home run drive over Easton's head in left field, with Captain Johnston on first base, in the second inning, gave Brown all of its runs and saved the team from a shut-out. After this Yale pitched brilliantly, and Babington worked over for a pass. Merrill and Hobbs went out in order, but Britton, a substitute first baseman, tripled to left, tallying Gerhardt. Britton was out at the plate in an endeavor to stretch the hit into a circuit clout, Albrecht making a fine throw to the plate.

The cadets, with two down in the third, got another run. Hobbs tripled to right and came home when Britton sent one past Fishburn. Lehigh's rally in the sixth looked formidable. Acorn died to Merrill. Anderson banged a single over second. Trembley followed with a clean hit through short, but Anderson was out at third when a Lehigh coach ran out and grabbed him at that bag. Chenoweth walked, but Nathan fanned Fishburn.

The fine fielding of Chenoweth and Prichard was the feature of the game. It was Neyland's eighteenth straight victory, counting his work last season. The cadets have now won eight in row this year.
